

OCTOBER 5th AT INDIANAPOLIS.

We give you briefly as gleaned from Indianapolis papers, some account of the Democratic demonstration at Indianapolis on the 5th.

Space forbids our being profuse, so we will briefly give you some of the plain facts. Facts that show how some of the old Union Veterans look upon the Democratic Platform and our Democratic standard bearers, and we can see that those who fought for the Union now fight for Reform.

The mass convention of Union soldiers, sailors and citizens was a grand and glorious success. One hundred thousand witnessed the grand pageant. Ten thousand in line. Speeches by soldiers and statesmen from six stands simultaneously. Gens. Palmer, McClelland and others addressed their old comrades. Govs. Hendricks, Curtin and Bigler addressed the multitude. Pulitzer speaks to the Germans, and a host of other speakers are heard in the afternoon and evening. Grand torchlight procession at night. The city illuminated in honor of the Veterans of the war.

Indianapolis never witnessed a grander pageant than the one which honored her and which she delighted to honor. It was grand, not so much in numbers—though it has never been but twice excelled, and then on occasions without political significance—as in the character and history of the men who constituted its principal feature. It was grand not so much in its monstrous length—though but one longer one has ever filed through our streets—as in the purpose that caused thousands of men to leave their homes, sacrificing more than half a week of sleep, and catching on the road scanty meals at irregular and uncertain hours. It was grand, not so much in appearance—though a manlier set of stalwart men never marched in procession—as in the enthusiastic determination of the participants to overthrow corruption and reform the administration.

All the speeches were honest bold and patriotic coming from men who fought and bled for their country. Who has a better right to cry for reform than these old Veterans who fighting under the stars and stripes all but died for their country. They fought then to save their country. You find them now raising their voices in behalf of liberty and the right. They would save the country from destruction now as they did then. Surely heed should be given when such men speak.

The following are brief extracts from two of the speeches made on that occasion.

GEN. JOHN A. MCCLERNAND.

Comrades of the Union Army and Navy in the late Civil War:

A change is needed; indeed, absolutely necessary. A change of seasons—a change from night to day is according to order of nature. A change of opinions, policies and rulers is in the order of progress. Let us have such a change. It cannot be for the worse; it may be for the better. But to that end a precedent condition exists. A wise and experienced statesman, firm of purpose, prompt to act, and bearing the prestige of a bold and successful reform, is indispensable to lead in the undertaking. Such a man is comprehensive and thorough in his work. He eliminates order out of chaos, repose and confidence out of perturbation and distrust, and penetrating the future, provides against future evils by anticipating their causes. In a word, his system is in line with natural laws, and develops itself in consistent and harmonious unity, and so, stands in opposition to the system of shifting and uncertain expedients to the empiricism of pretenders. [Great applause.]

Such a man makes no invidious distinctions between classes and pursuits; undertakes not to regulate the religion, tastes, habits, or recreations of the people by an arbitrary rule; nor to shadow their footsteps with gens d'armes to and from the church, the theater or their homes, lest they may hurt themselves, or be hurt by others. He contemplates the citizen as a man, not as an incapable or automaton and leaves all these things to his individual discretion. He has no special favors to bestow, or resentments to avenge. Equal and impartial justice to all—good will among men, and peace at home and abroad, are the objects of his humane and lofty aims and endeavors. Naturally a man of authority, he draws after him, by magnetic attraction the sympathizing and confiding masses, who in times of danger and distress instinctively turn to him as a refuge. Such a man is Samuel J. Tilden, governor of the empire state of the Union [A one armed soldier here proposed three cheers for Tilden, which were given with a will, and the Democratic people by the Republican candidate for governor that he commences his address by saying 'I am glad that I am a Republican.' Well I know of a good many that are glad they are Republicans. I will only mention one. That is Boss Shepherd of Washington City. [Applause.] A few years ago he was a gas-fitter in the city of Washington. To-day I suppose he is worth $5,000,000, and as he looks out of his palace upon the long rows of brown stone front houses that he has built, he too thanks the Lord that he has been a Republican. [Applause.] And he has more reasons to be thankful that he is a Republican than the candidate for governor of Indiana. He has 5,000,000 reasons, and each reason is worth a dollar to him. [Applause.]

I want a change, so that capital will seek investment, and that labor will find employment. [Applause.] That is what we want. [Cheers.]

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF Hepatitis or Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver. PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all Bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist on your druggist or storekeeper giving you the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

To those wishing to give Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS a trial, we will mail post paid to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twenty-five cents.

CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

[Letter from a Postmaster.]

"ANTIOCH, ILL., Dec. 1, 1874.

"Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co.: "My wife has, for a long time, been a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism. She has tried many physicians and many remedies. The only thing which has given her relief is Centaur Liniment. I am rejoiced to say this has cured her. I am doing what I can to extend its sale."

W. H. RING.

This is a sample of many thousand testimonials received, of wonderful cures effected by the Centaur Liniment. The ingredients of this article are published around each bottle. It contains Witch Hazel, Mentha, Arnica, Rock Oil, Carbolic, and ingredients hitherto little known. It is an indisputable fact that the Centaur Liniment is performing more cures of Swellings, Stiff Joints, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Lock-jaw, &c., than all other Liniments, Embrocations, Extracts, Salves, Ointments, and Plasters now in use.

For Toothache, Earache Weak Back, and Cutaneous Eruptions it is admirable. It extracts burns and scalds without a scar. Extracts poison from bites and stings, and heals frost-bites and chilblains, in a short time. No family can afford to be without the Centaur Liniment, white wrapper.

The Centaur Liniment, yellow wrapper, is adapted to the tough skin, muscles and flesh of the animal creation. Its effects upon severe cases of Spavin, Sweny, Wind Gall, Big Head and Poll Evil, are little less than marvellous.

Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., Druggists corner Elm and Front streets, Cincinnati O., say:

"In our neighborhood a number of teamsters are using the Centaur Liniment. They pronounce it superior to anything they have ever used. We sell as high as four to five dozen bottles per month to these teamsters."

We have thousands of similar testimonials.

For Wounds, Galls, Scratches, Ring-bone, &c., and for Screw Worm in Sheep it has no rival. Farmers, Livery-men, and Stock-raisers, have in this Liniment a remedy which is worth a hundred times its cost.

Laboratory of J. B. Rose & Co., 46 DEY STREET, NEW YORK.

PITCHER'S CASTORIA.

Mothers may have rest and their babies may have health, if they will use Castoria for Wind Colic, Worms, Feverishness, Sore Mouth, Croup, or Stomach Complaints. It is entirely a vegetable preparation, and contains neither mineral, morphia, nor alcohol. It is as pleasant to take as honey, and neither gases nor gripes. Dr. E. Dimock, of Dupont, O., says: "I am using Castoria in my practice with the most signal benefits and happy result."

This is what everyone says. Most nurses in New York City use the Castoria. It is prepared by Messrs. J. B. Rose & Co., 46 Dey street, New York, successors of Samuel Pitcher, M. D.

Why do You Shake?

For the convenience of the consumer the proprietors of Dr. Sherman's Malarifuge now put it up in 75 cent bottles as well as $1.60 as heretofore. To those who have used the Malarifuge, it is not necessary to say a word in its behalf; but to those who have shaken in ignorance of it we will say, try it and add your testimony to thousands of others, that it cured you. No other medicine is required, as it is a combined tonic, alterative, cathartic, febrifuge, cholagogue and anti-periodic. It neutralizes miasmatic poison, purifies and invigorates the blood, restores the Liver and other diseased organs to their natural healthy condition, there by thoroughly eradicating the disease. For Sale by J. F. LLEWELLYN.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

All creditors and others interested in the estate of A. T. Botts, deceased, are hereby notified, that I will make a final settlement of my administration of said estate, at the next regular term of the Probate Court of Audrain County Missouri, to be begun and held in Mexico, on the Second Monday in November, next.
